

Travelling to and from ports

We recommend that you check different options yourself, because there are many ways to travel today. These tips are only some of the possible ways to travel to and from the ports.

Oslo

Christian Radich's pier is in the centre of Oslo, just opposite the Town Hall. From Oslo Airport, Gardermoen, it takes about 20 minutes into the centre of Oslo. You either get off at the station: Nationaltheateret or you take a taxi from Oslo Central station.

Kiel

For Norwegians, it is easy to get to and from Kiel. Coming from other countries, Hamburg Airport is not far away. You can take the train from Hamburg, or other cities in Germany, to Kiel.

Eemshaven / Delfzijl

The easiest way to travel from Eemshaven or come to Delfzijl is by train from Amsterdam or Bremen. From Amsterdam the journey takes about 3-4 hours and from Bremen 4-5 hours. Both cities have several connections to Europe.

<http://www.rome2rio.com/s/Nearby-Airports/Delfzijl>

Deutsche Bahn: <http://reiseauskunft.bahn.de>

<http://www.airport-bremen.de/>

Antwerp

There is an airport in Antwerp, check if it goes directly flights here from your country. The harbor is in the center, not far from the cathedral. You can also fly to Brussels and take the train from here to Antwerp. The train is expected to take about 40 minutes. From the train station in Antwerp, it is about 10 km to the harbor.

www.antwerp-airport.be

www.brusselsairport.be

Trains in Belgium: www.nmbs.be

Lisbon

There are several airlines offering direct flights to and from Lisbon. When you have arrived, it is about 15 minutes by bus or taxi to the city center and harbor.

www.lisbon-airport.com

Cadiz

There is an airport in Cadiz, but it might be cheaper to fly to Malaga and take the bus from here. The bus to Cadiz runs from Malaga center. It takes about 4 hours and costs around 30 euros. Another option is to fly to Jerez. Jerez is an hour bus / train ride from Cadiz.

www.airport-malaga.com

Shuttle bus from Malaga: www.venta.avanzabus.com

Shuttle bus Cadiz-Jerez: http://siu.cmtbc.es/en/horarios\_lineas.php?municipioLineas=42

Travelling to and from ports

A Coruña

From most places you have to fly through Madrid on your way to/from A Coruña. In A Coruña, there is a bus going from downtown to the airport, you can also take taxi, it takes approximately fifteen minutes. The harbor is in the city center, close to the Old Town.

You can also take the train to Santiago de Compostela. The train takes less than an hour. Ryanair, among others, are flying from Santiago.

La Coruna Airport: <http://www.aena.es/csee/Satellite/Aeropuerto-A-Coruna/es>

Santiago Airport: <http://www.aena.es/csee/Satellite/Aeropuerto-Santiago/en/Santiago.html>

Blyth

Blyth is close to Newcastle, and buses are going between the cities. First you take the bus from the airport to the city center in Newcastle, it takes about ½ hour. Then you change bus, going to Blyth. The bus to Blyth takes a little more than ½ hour.

www.newcastleairport.com

Bus: www.goeuro.co.uk

Göteborg

From the harbor to the Central Station in Göteborg, it is approx 3 km. The buses go frequently and take about 10 minutes. Landvetter Airport is a 20 minutes by bus ride away, and connects you to many European cities.